

"Real change begins with the simple act of people talking with one another about what they care about." - Margaret Wheatley

We could not agree more. We invite you to be part of the conversation about things that matter most, with women who will make you think, make you laugh, and may even make you cry. This Spring, we will be joined by three Great Dames who will start conversations with us that we will never forget ... and that will change us forever. Please join us.

Be Part of the Conversation

2014 Great Closet Clean Out

MONDAY, APRIL 7

8:30 am - 1:00 pm

It's finally SPRING!!!! This is a GREAT time to clean out your closets and share your wardrobe with other women who need it!

Several drop-off locations throughout Delaware!

Visit www.Great-Dames.com/Events for details and locations.

Who will benefit: Wilmington Senior Center "City Styles Thrift Shop", Great Stuff (Delaware Breast Cancer Coalition), and Clothing Bank of Delaware

How to participate: Gather consignment-quality, new or gently-used, clean career clothing for women (and men), on hangers or in bags, and bring donations to one of our drop-off locations.

Learn more: www.Great-Dames.com/Events

Our fifth annual career clothing drive is part of DE Week of Service, April 6 - 12, 2014, in collaboration with Delaware Office of Volunteerism, United Way of Delaware, NAWBO Delaware, and Pettinaro Relocation.
