

CREATE YOUR LEGACY NOW

Dear Great Dames,

We have talked to hundreds of women and men since we launched Great Dames, Inc. At the end of the day, we all have the same questions. How can I leave a mark on the world? What will I be remembered for by my friends, my children and grandchildren? How do I create a meaningful legacy?

At its essence, that is what Great Dames is all about – helping you on your journey to legacy creation. We believe this journey involves discovering your purpose, forging strong connections, and making service an essential part of your life.

All of our discovery circles, workshops and volunteer events are designed to help you on that journey. We also share opportunities from our partners which we think will benefit you.

Please mark these dates on your calendar today and go to our website for additional information.

I look forward to seeing each of you in person.

Yours in service,

Sharon Hake, President & CEO
